

Real Friends

Boosie Badazz

Miss my nigga Derek Mill
A real friend gon love you like a brother We need real friends
Love you like brothers
This world needs real friends
To love you like brothers
Sometimes we need friends
Love you like brothers One shot for my nigga big Kirby
He's been thugging with since we've been coming up
Behind me he will shoot a nigga up
Shit one time we went to jail he told the police that was his thug
All I got to do is look and he'd be quick to boot you up
He don't give a fuck
He ain't goin' talk about Boosie round bleak
Cuz he goin' say something
So don't tell me that's your friend if they talk
And you don't say nothing
Don't at my dog he gonna stand with a suit armor
Mean in this world fuck the world I'm bringing boo-ha
Me and Red waited too long
Fighting 'em bodies in a golden man
Not me a Roover man we both home
I love you nigga you so silent man
I know you are a real friend
And gonna love me like a brother
Sometimes we need friends
Who gonna love me like a brother Got your back when you need it
The you calls you be there
Fuck that I'm coming to see ya
In a jail in a well
A real friend will lift you up
No matter what you be at
Shit ain't goin' fuck a girl nigga
She ain't gonna take that shit down
A friend gonna know what you going through hurt when you hurt
No what you feeling inside it's like a feeling we got Everybody in competition if everybody chill out
Everybody could get money round this mother fucker
This world needs real friends
To love you like brothers
Sometimes we need friends
To love you like brothers Watch my back if you my friend
You'll be my passenger in every car

Don't be my homie be my friend
One of the closest niggas to my heart
Don't tell on me if I'm your friend
You take our secrets to the grave and all
You know I got your kids you got my kids shit we up in for
I got his back I'm clutching bag behind my fucking dollar
I went to jail they killed my friend If you lost a friend I want you to put your hands up
I want you to sing this mother fucking song with me The world needs real friends
The world needs real friends
