ENGLISH TRANSLATION
After a while,
when I recognized you Everything was clearly changing My world separates to before and after knowing you When you breath,
a warm wind blows
When you smile,
dazzling sunlight shines
Because you stayed there,
because it's you
Because you sometimes quietly lean on my shoulder
I'm really,
completely happy
I follow you as time flows and stops
Sometimes,
I gaze at you
Because I can't do anything else but that Every moment of you,
I hope it'll be me
Just thinking of it overwhelms
me, filling me with you When I'm looking at you, you seem faraway like a dream A starlight that has flown to me for several light-years is you right now Because you stayed there,
because it's you
Because you sometimes
quietly lean on my shoulder
I'm really, wholly thankful
I follow you as
time flows and stops
Sometimes,
I gaze at you
Because for me,
looking at you is love
Every moment of you,
I hope it'll be me
Just thinking of it overwhelms
me, filling me with you
Every moment of you,
I hope it'll be me
