

Carry Yourself

Eric Gales

I'll never walk away pretty girl
I'm in your lane you can drive girl
'Cause my keys are in the palm of your hand
'Cause I love the way you carry yourself
My mind is set on a truthstone
I just don't wanna live my life alone
'Cause I love the way you carry yourself
I love the way you carry yourself
I love the way you carry yourself
I love the way
I love the way you carry yourself
The way your carry yourself
I love the way you carry yourself
I love the way
I love the way you carry yourself
Carry yourself
