Will Do

TV on the Radio

It might be impractical to seek out a new romance we won't know the actual if we never take the chance I'd like to collapse with you and ease you against this song I think we're compatible, I see that you think I'm wrongany time will do, my love any time will do, no choice of words will break me from this groove any time will do, my love any time will do, what choice of words will take me back to you?your love makes a fool of you, you can't seem to understand a heart doesn't play by rules and love has it's own demands but I'll be there to take care of you if ever you should decide that you don't want to waste your life in the middle of a lovesick lullaby any time will do, my love any time will do, no choice of words will break me from this groove any time will do, my love any time will do, the choicest words will take me back to you oh my reddest rose, caldera, set it off how your fire grows hermosa caldera glistening through your fussed blows careen your caldera set it off, as your body flows the second hand flashes passes over your skin like timeMy love, any time will do Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by http://www.1songlyrics.com/