

Superior Emotion (feat. Cautious Clay)

AlunaGeorge

Battle with my instincts
Evolution giving me the skills that I don't need
And these pills that I think I need
I feel like a wild one
Living in a violence
Stating my enviroment
And I just need a quiet mindAnd I'm cool for a while
And I'm cool for a while
Then I'm looking for that high
Yeah, I'm looking for
Superior emotion
Obsessed with the mess and the feeling of devotion
That's what I want, but I know I don't need it
That's what I want and it makes me weak
Superior relations
It's a test of my faith, that sublime sensation
That's what I want, but I know I don't need it
That's what I want, that's what I wantYou're sounding like a martyr
Something you could bottle
Fishing for a follow
But you need patience to love
You're wasting your modesty
Never had a back track from ago
Chase me once, then you'll know
Escape that you need
Not gonna fall without hope
Superior emotion
Obsessed with the mess and the feeling of devotion
That's what I want, but I know I don't need it
That's what I want and it makes me weak
Superior relations
(Superior relations)
It's a test of my faith, that sublime sensation
That's what I want, but I know I don't need it
That's what I want
That's what I wantAnd I'm cool for a while (cool for a while)
And I'm cool for a while (cool for a while)
Yeah, then I'm looking for that high (high)
Yeah, I'm looking forSuperior emotion
Obsessed with the mess and the feeling of devotion
That's what I want, but I know I don't need it
That's what I want and it makes me weak

Superior relations
(superior relations)
It's a test of my faith, that sublime sensation
That's what I want, but I know I don't need it
That's what I want
That's what I want
