

No Wonder

Silver

I remember well
On that summer day when you told me
You'd been searching for your
Perfect lover and now me I was lost between your lines
Feeling that I'd known you all the time
Dreaming that we hung there lost in time
Wishing it never had to end Oh, your fondest gaze
Was the perfect maze to get lost in
Never seemed to mind
Only satisfied to be caught there I was lost there in your eyes
Feeling that the timing must be right
Dreaming I'd be holding you so tight
Wishing it never had to end
No wonder
I fell under your spell I could not tell
What you were all about
But you made me wanna shout
I love you Lover save me
Can't you see I'm desperate
Confessions
Of my heart Have you ever seen her
Running through the daybreak
Listen
I heard her call my name
Have you ever seen her
Painting her pictures
The evening sky will never be
The same
I was lost there in your eyes
Feeling that the timing must be right
Dreaming I'd be holding you so tight
Wishing it never had to end No wonder
I fell under your spell
No wonder
I fell under your spell
No wonder
I fell under your spell
No wonder
I fell under your spell
