

Drawn to the Flame

Thunderstone

Playing with fire gets you burned
I knew it, but still I didn't take heed
Two is company, three's a crowd
I knew that too, but still I couldn't let go
It's burning me, burning me
Like a beggar for money I'm drawn...
Between two fires I don't stand
Filled with a flame both bitter and sweet
It's burning me, burning me
Like a beggar for money I'm drawn...
To the flame
I am the one to blame
Flame
I have been drawn to the flame
I'm burned by the fire
That is you
To the flame
I am the one to blame
Flame
I have been drawn to the flame
I'm burned by the fire
That is you
Playing with fire gets you burned
I knew it, but still I didn't take heed
It's burning me, burning me
Like a beggar for money I'm drawn...
To the flame
I am the one to blame
Flame
I have been drawn to the flame
I'm burned by the fire
That is you
To the flame
I am the one to blame
Flame
I have been drawn to the flame
I'm burned by the fire
That is you
