

T.F.E.R.A.

The Ready Set

The way that I acted, so irrational
You saw me lying useless on the asphalt
And that other girl, I'm pretty sure she didn't know
Played out with cables but I jumped it so it's not slow
And was I everything you asked for now?
And was I everything you asked for now?
Take what you can get, woah
So when a robot falls in love, we clap clap
I saw an angel from above, I had a heart attack
And I awoke with blood on my nose
'Cause everyone's an enemy and everyone's a memory
And I am so sick of this town
So what would you say,
We leave just you and me?
And we can make some memories
We'll drive to the south, live on some Texas beach
Our lives will be in perfect harmony
So was I everything you asked for now?
Under the floorboards, inside the walls, I am you
The vampire's smile has got you here
Any last words now?
So when a robot falls in love, we clap clap
I saw an angel from above, I had a heart attack
And I awoke with blood on my nose
'Cause everyone's an enemy and everyone's a memory
And I am so sick of this
I am so sick of this
If I could see you fall in love, I'd clap clap
'Cause you're an angel from above, giving me heart attacks
And you awoke with blood all on your nose
'Cause everyone's a enemy and everyone's an memory
And I am so sick of this town
Don't give up anything you want,
'Cause it all comes in time
Lately I've been having these dreams
I saved my spot in line
The only things I'm sure of, baby, you will hear right now
I'm feeling more than touch my words have said enough
I swear that what I love is what I'll live
Sing with conviction, be sincere
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>