Tin Man

Miranda Lambert

Hey there Mr. Tin Man
You don't know how lucky you are
You shouldn't spend your whole life wishin'
For something bound to fall apart
Everytime you're feeling empty
Better thank you lucky stars
If you ever felt one breaking

You'd never want a heartoooooo, ooooooo, ooooooo, ooooooo, ooo

Hey there Mr. Tin Man

You don't know how lucky you are

I've been on the road that you're on

It didn't get me very far

You ain't missing nothing

Cause love is so damn hard

Take it from me darlin'

Hey there Mr. Tin Man
I'm glad we talked this out
You can take mine if you want it
It's in pieces now
By the way there Mr. Tin Man
If you don't mind the scars
You give me your armor
