J. Cole

[Intro]

Go, go, go

Go, go, go

Go, go, go[Chorus]

This is what you call a flip

Ten keys from a quarter brick

Bentley from his mama's whip

K.O.D., he hard as shit

This is what you call a flip

Ten keys from a quarter brick

Bentley from his mama's whip

K.O.D., he hard as shit

This is what you call a flip

Ten keys from a quarter brick

Bentley from his mama's whip

K.O.D., he hard as shit

This is what you call a flip

Ten keys from a quarter brick

Bentley from his mama's whip

K.O.D., he hard as shit

[Verse 1]

Wow, niggas been crampin' my style

Blowin' my high, they want a reply

The number one question is, "How?"

How does it feel now that you on?

How much you worth? How big is your home?

How come you won't get a few features?

I think you should? How 'bout I don't?

How 'bout you just get the fuck off my dick?

How 'bout you listen and never forget?

Only gon' say this one time, then I'll dip

Niggas ain't worthy to be on my shit

Haven't you heard? I'm as cold as the tip

Tip of the iceberg that tipped the Titanic

No tip-toein' around it, my shit is gigantic

As big as the fuckin' Atlantic, I'm lit, bitch

[Chorus]

This is what you call a flip

Ten keys from a quarter brick

Bentley from his mama's whip

K.O.D., he hard as shit

This is what you call a flip
Ten keys from a quarter brick
Bentley from his mama's whip

K.O.D., he hard as shit

This is what you call a flip
Ten keys from a quarter brick
Bentley from his mama's whip

K.O.D., he hard as shit

This is what you call a flip
Ten keys from a quarter brick
Bentley from his mama's whip

K.O.D., he hard as shit[Verse 2]

How I grew up, only few would've loved

'Member I got my first view of the blood

I'm hangin' out and they shoot up the club

My homie got pharmaceutical plug

I smoke the drug and it run through my vein

I think it's workin', it's numbin' the pain

Don't give a fuck and I'm somewhat insane

Don't give a fuck and I'm somewhat insane

Yeah, at this shit daily, sipped so much Actavis

I convinced Actavis that they should pay me

If practice made perfect, I'm practice's baby

If practice made perfect, I'm practice's baby

Platinum wrist ridin' in back like Miss Daisy

Platinum disc and I own masters, bitch, pay me

Y'all niggas trappin' so lack-sical-daisy

My nigga sell crack like it's back in the '80s

Know a young nigga, he actin' so crazy

He serve a few packs and he jack a Mercedes

He shoot at the police, he clap at old ladies

He don't give a fuck if them crackers gon' hang him

Bitches been askin', "What have you done lately?"

I stacked a few M's like my last name was Shady

My life is too crazy, no actor could play me

My life is too crazy, no actor could play me[Chorus]

This is what you call a flip
Ten keys from a quarter brick
Bentley from his mama's whip

K.O.D., he hard as shit

This is what you call a flip
Ten keys from a quarter brick
Bentley from his mama's whip

K.O.D., he hard as shit

This is what you call a flip
Ten keys from a quarter brick
Bentley from his mama's whip

K.O.D., he hard as shit

This is what you call a flip

Ten keys from a quarter brick
Bentley from his mama's whip
K.O.D., he hard as shit[Outro]
Power, greed
Money, Molly, weed
Percs, Xannys, lean, fame
And the strongest drug of them all
And the strongest drug of them all
Love
