One of Us Must Know (Sooner or Later)

Bob Dylan

I didn't mean to treat you so bad You shouldn't take it so personal I didn't mean to make you so sad You just happened to be there, that's allWhen I saw you say "goodbye" to your friend and smile I thought that it was well understood That you'd be comin' back in a little while I didn't know that you were sayin' "goodbye" for goodBut sooner or later, one of us must know That you just did what you're supposed to do Sooner or later, one of us must know That I really did try to get close to youI couldn't see what you could show me Your scarf had kept your mouth well hid I couldn't see how you could know me But you said you knew me and I believed you did When you whispered in my ear And asked me if I was leavin' with you or her I didn't realize just what I did hear I didn't realize how young you wereBut sooner or later, one of us must know That you just did what you're supposed to do Sooner or later, one of us must know That I really did try to get close to youI couldn't see when it started snowin' Your voice was all that I heard I couldn't see where we were goin' But you said you knew and I took your wordAnd then you told me later, as I apologized That you were just kiddin' me, you weren't really from the farm An' I told you, as you clawed out my eyes That I never really meant to do you any harm But sooner or later, one of us must know That you just did what you're supposed to do Sooner or later, one of us must know That I really did try to get close to you Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941.
