

I Want Your Attention (feat. Fiora)

Moon Boots

I've been looking
Right at you
But I don't think
You look into So won't you tell me
What I got to do Should I stay here
Or should I make your proof I want your attention
I earned attention
I need your attention
I release attention
I cleared every motion is like that
I can tell that the cure is your skin
Can be animal open yours
So give you all of the sun I want your attention
I earned attention
I need your attention
Love is sensation
I want your attention
I earned attention
I need your attention
I release attention
