

Reborn

Drowning Pool

Hands raised full of sin
This is where the story began
As my halo
I'm scarred by where I've been This ain't over, till it's over
This ain't over, till it's over, yeah The hell I've been through
I saw my face in the bottom of a bottle
The hell I've gone through
To be reborn, reborn, again The hell I've been through
Shot down, ran through, dragged through
The hell I've gone through
To be reborn, reborn, again, again
Tear away, redefine
Bring me down, this life
Take what's wrong and make it right
Crucified every time I tried This ain't over, roll me over
This ain't over, till it's, till it's over The hell I've been through
I saw my face in the bottom of a bottle
The hell I've gone through
To be reborn, reborn, again The hell I've been through
Shot down, ran through, dragged through
The hell I've gone through
To be reborn, reborn, again
This love, hate, this game
Don't want to remember
Made numb, mute, unreal
I can't forget, I can't forget
No, I won't, I can't forget Yeah, good goddamn
The hell I've been through
I saw my face in the bottom of a bottle
The hell I've gone through
To be reborn, reborn, again The hell I've been through
Shot down, ran through, dragged through
The hell I've gone through
To be reborn, reborn, again Reborn, reborn, I'm reborn again
I won't forget, no
