Fortune Teller

Calexico

I was just standing, turning around
That's when they caught me headin' down
Keep on going don't look away

That's what they tell me, that's what they sayOOOOh, OOOOhYeah, that's what they tell me, that's what they sayYou're a pretty thought I support

Yeah, I'm just tryin' to hold up as I go

And one day I swear I'll spread my wings

I'm on my way to finer things

OOOOh, OOOh, OOOOhI'm on my way to finer things

It wasn't just me playin' those games

Still it's my own fault just the same

I opened up, I let you in

Now these crystal feelings are wearing thinOOOOh, OOOh, OOOOhI opened up, I let you in

I'm walkin' with the fortune teller

I can see my own way home

But I don't like this dark road anymore

And I don't want to be alone for longOOOOh, OOOh, OOOOhDon't want to be alone for long I don't want to be on this dark road alone...
