

Birthday Suit

Mike Jay

Your skin's amazing
Smile light up the dark
I'm so in love
Feel like I knew it from the start
You got that ass
That a real nigga can't pass
Let's stand up to this mirror
So I can put it to the glass
If you was a stripper you'd be right here on the pole
And if this bed could move
We could call this a rodeo
I'm down here on my knees
Askin' you
Can you baby please
Please, do it for me
Cause I want you in that birthday suit, baby
We ain't gotta talk no more, baby
Let me pull those panties down
Drop them on the ground
Cause I want you in that birthday suit, baby
Tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight
Cause I want you in that birthday suit, baby
Tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight
Cause I want you in that birthday suit, baby
Tonight
Don't be nervous, baby
Take a sip of this
Drink it slowly
While I give your lips a kiss
I'm on that ass
So I hope you up for the task
Let's stand up to this mirror
So I can put it to the glass
If you was a stripper you'd be right here on the pole
And if this bed could move
We could call this a rodeo
I'm down here on my knees
Askin' you
Can you baby please
Please, do it for me
Cause I want you in that birthday suit, baby
We ain't gotta talk no more, baby
Let me pull those panties down
Drop them on the ground
Cause I want you in that birthday suit, baby

Tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight
Cause I want you in that birthday suit, baby
Tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight
Cause I want you in that birthday suit, baby
Tonight If you was a stripper you'd be right here on the pole
And if this bed could move
We could call this a rodeo
I'm down here on my knees
Askin' you Can you baby please
Please, do it for me
Cause I want you in that birthday suit, baby
We ain't gotta talk no more, baby
Let me pull those panties down
Drop them on the ground Cause I want you in that birthday suit, baby
Tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight
Cause I want you in that birthday suit, baby
Tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight
Cause I want you in that birthday suit, baby
Tonight
