

Here On Earth

Dierks Bentley

Standin' hear on this cold ground
Tears fallin' down in the dirt
This world keeps spinnin' round and round but
Your lyin' still in the earth Don't wanna swim in this darkness
Drown in a whiskey sea
But there's no making sense of the senseless
What this pain is killin' me There's not a stone in my heart I've left unturned
Not a piece of my soul that I ain't searched
The only answer that I found for all this hurt
Is there ain't no answer here on Earth.
(mhm)
I ain't the best of believers
Ain't at the front of the church
I've read the words of the teacher
But I still struggle with what it's all worth cause There's not a stone in my heart I've left unturned
Not a piece of my soul that I ain't searched
The only answer that I found for all this hurt
Is there ain't no answer here on Earth. I wish that I could be stronger
I wanna have that kind of faith
But even if I did I still wonder cause nothin' would change
You're gone Cause you're gone Please, help me believe
I'm on my knees
Help me believe
There's not a stone in my heart I've left unturned
Not a piece of my soul that I ain't searched
The only answer that I found for all this hurt
Is there ain't no answers here on Earth
Down here on Earth
There's no answers here on Earth Here on Earth.

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>