Hungry for Your Love

Van Morrison

I'm hungry for your love I'm hungry for your love I'm hungry for your love But I can wait nowI'm on the telephone And I am all alone I'm on the telephone And we're connectedI got such a lot of love I wanna give it to you I got such a lot of love I wanna give it to you I got such a lot of love I wanna give it to you And though we're far apart You are here in my heart And though we're far apart You're part of me nowAnd after all the years And after all the tears And after all the tears There's just the truth nowI got such a lot of love I wanna give it to you I got such a lot of love I wanna give it to you I got such a lot of love I wanna give it to youWell, I'm hungry for your love Hungry for your love Well, I'm hungry, yeah Well, I'm hungry for your love now I love you in buckskin, yeah yeah I love you in buckskin, yeah yeah I love you, I love you, I love you, I love you I love you, I love you, I love you, I love you I love you, I love you, I love you nowI'm hungry for your love Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941.
