

Over and Over

Jim James

Over again.
Over and over and over again
Over and over and over again
On and on and on
We fight the same fights
(On and on)
We shed the same blood
(On and on)
Go down the same roads.
Over and over again
How many lifetimes?
(On and on)
How many bloodlines?
(On and on)
Until we realize, we could all be lovers and friends?
We do it over again
Over and over and over again
Over and over and over again
On and on and on
How can we make
The same mistakes and still carry on?
And do the same we did yesterday?
Have we learned nothing at all?
We drop the same bombs
(On and on)
Put up the same walls.
(On and on)
We block the same roads.
Over and over again
How many lifetimes?
(On and on)
How many bloodlines?
(On and on)
Until we realize, we could all be lovers and friends?
We do it over again
Over and over and over again
Over and over and over again
On and on and on
Keep back now, over again
Over and over and over again
Over and over and over again
On and on and on
