

Bliss

Red Sun Rising

Eden is growing slow
The low hanging fruits are all we know
I set out for sky but I woke up alone
The most obvious dreams are the ones we let go
And I feel it sinking in
Yeah I feel it sinking in oh I feel that my own bliss
Was pure ignorance And I'm young and tired and free
But I'm ready for anything
Unchained for the world to see
That I found what I was born to be
And I'm young and I'm tired
But I'm fee
But i"m ready for anything And I feel it sinking in
And I feel it sinking in
And I feel that my own bliss
Was pure ignorance And I'm young and tired free
But I'm ready for anything
Unchained for the world to see
Tha I found what I was born to be
And I feel it sinking in
Yes I feel it sinking in
And I feel that my own bliss
Was pure ignorance
