Bring On the Day

Charlotte Martin

Well, I'm feeling like I'm falling
But I'm still on my feet
Reality is calling
But that don't bother me'Cause I'm on my way
And I'm okayI'm ready to get ready
Willing to get by
I'm able to imagine
What it's like to flyInto the blue
Fall down too
Hey, hey, come on bring on the day
'Cause I just might get everything I need
Hey, hey, I'm givin' what it takes
I'm ready as I'm ever gonna be
So bring on the day, bring on the dayLike a diver in the water
Everything feels slow
But my caramel macchiato
Really gets me in the flowAnd I'm on my way
Whatever it takesHey, hey, come on bring on the day
'Cause I just might get everything I need
Hey, hey, I'm givin' what it takes
I'm ready as I'm ever gonna be
So bring on the day, bring on the day
What you get is what you see
Open up your eyes they'll set you free
It all works out eventually
You gotta keep on keepin' onI can rock and I can roll
I know I wanna move, I gotta take control
Watch out world, 'cause here I come
And I can't stop 'til I'm doneHey, hey, I'm finally on my wayHey, hey, come on bring on the day
'Cause I just might get everything I need
Hey, hey, I'm givin' what it takes
I'm ready as I'm ever gonna be
So bring on the day, bring on the dayYou gotta keep on keepin' on
You gotta keep on keepin' on
Keep on, keep on, keep on keepin' on
