

Speak Easy

Mansionair

Speak, speak easy to me
Got a lot on your mind,
It's time tonight
Speak, speak easy to me
Don't let this go down tonight, tonight
Speak, speak to me
My victory slips, and holds defeat
Speak, and may the world come undone
Will you write on the wall tonight, tonight
And hope that this is the last time
And hope that this is the last time
Come and keep the dial up
Whatever will be enough
Come and keep the dial up
For now.
Speak, speak easy to me
I leave at the seas and see release
Speak and look through your teeth
You're lying to me
And hope that this is the last time
And hope that this is the last time
Come and keep the dial up
We are falling out of touch
Come and keep the dial up
For now
Just speak easy to me
So speak easy to me
So speak easy to me
So speak easy to me
So speak easy to me
And hope that this is the last time
And hope that this is the last time
Come and keep the dial up
We are falling out of touch
Come and keep the dial up
For now.
Come and keep the dial up
Whatever will be enough
Come and keep the dial up
For now.
Speak, speak easy to me.
