

Remember

Colours

Your bed...
I watch as you change in front of me, front of me
my head...
is filled up with things you do to me, do to me
your skin-made in my dreams, a fantasy, fantasy I breathe for the last time it seems when I hear you speak
I remember the time
remember the time
remember the time when I
I was alive
I was alive
I was alive the night
of you and I
you and I
remember the time
remember the time
remember the time of you and I
your eyes...
screaming my name, it's all I hear, all I hear
your legs...
they wrap around me, and now I feel, I can feel I stop...
and start and stop and start
I love hearing you breathe
in time with my heart
I remember the time
remember the time
remember the time when I
I was alive
I was alive
I was alive the night
of you and I
you and I
remember the time
remember the time
remember the time of you, you and I I saw you and you changed my mind
you changed my mind
you changed my mind
thought that I found all I need to find I need to find

I need to find
you always made it all alright
it all alright
you made it all alright
we made it good
you and I
just you and I
just you and I
remember the time
remember the time
remember the time when I
I was alive
I was alive
I was alive the night
of you and I
you and I
remember the time
remember the time
remember the time when I
I was alive
I was alive
I was alive the night
of you and I
you and I
remember the time
remember the time
remember the time of you, you and I
