

No Glue

Tanya Lacey

Fucking with my mind, mind.
Fucking with my mind, mind.
Fucking with my mind, mind.
Fucking with my mind, mind. Fucking with my mind, mind.
Seeing all the signs, signs.
We've been trying to find the solution, resolution, you and I. None of us to blame, blame.
We're just ain't the same, same
Feels just like we're moving, we're losing the fight. And I don't wanna say what I'm thinking have to admit that it's over. (It's over, it's over)
We know love ain't love without complications.
Try our best to get over, over.
Do we give up now? We've come unstuck.
No glue, What do you do when there's no glue?
I need an answer!
No glue, What do you do when there's no glue?
Hey! Can you give me an answer? Fucking with my mind, mind
Fucking with my mind, mind
Fucking with my mind, mind
Fucking with my mind, mind Just when I think We're clear, all the cracks reappear.
Spreading, shifting, tearing, spiting.
Staring us in the face, everything lost it's place.
Shattered pieces on the floor, they don't wanna fit no more, they don't seem to stick no more. I really don't wanna say what I'm thinking
Have to admit that it's over. (It's over, it's over)
We know love ain't love without complications.
Try our best to get over, over.
Do we giving up now? We've come unstuck.
No glue, What do you do when there's no glue?
I need an answer!
No glue, What do you do when there's no glue?
Yeah! Can you give me an answer? Cause it feels like, I'm lost in the rain.
Yeah, It feels like. Our time is running out and I feel like, we both can find a way to feel right, to relight, relight this flame! No glue, What do you do when there's no glue?
I need an answer!
No glue, What do you do when there's no glue?
Yeah! Can you give me an answer?
