

One Night Stand

Enrique Iglesias

Let me tell you
Jenny's getting dressed up in my room
Puts on her skirt and she's looking good
6 a.m. and she's leaving soon
Says: "What a crazy night! A real good time!"
But her kiss tells me it's goodbye
Just like nothing happened last night
But if I had one chance I'd do it all over again One night stand
I don't think she's coming back for more
She was only looking for a one night stand
I don't think she's coming back for more
Now I'm left up in my lonely room
She left her underwear and her perfume
I never thought it could be this good
And I still feel her lips upon my fingertips
I'm trying hard not to feel rejected
Maybe the phone line's disconnected
But if I had one chance I'd do it all over again One night stand
I don't think she's coming back for more
She was only looking for a one night stand
I don't think she's coming back for more She was only looking
One night stand
But I'd do it all over again for sure But baby like a blind man I rushed in Now do I have the right to ask you
Will you be coming back again?
One night stand
I don't think she's coming back
One night stand
I don't think she's coming back
One night stand
I don't think she's coming back One night stand
I don't think she's coming back for more
She was only looking for a one night stand
I don't think she's coming back for more
She was only looking for a one night stand
I don't think she's coming back for more
She was only looking for a one night stand
I don't think she's coming back for more
She was only looking for a one night stand But I'd do it all over again for sure
I guess it was a one night stand
One night stand
I guess it was a one night stand

A one night stand
I guess it was a one night stand
One night stand
I guess it was one night stand
One night stand
