

Sad (feat. Lil Yachty)

Kodie Shane

Its the don baby I just wanna be sad
I just wanna be sad bae
Aren't you ever ever sad a minute
Ohh yeah, uh Why am I the one that's always, in this position
Why am I the only one wishing, that you, was missing, me, like I miss you
This verse that I'm kicking is all about you
'cuz me, and you, like
Was I really tripping? 'cuz I thought me, and you
Was supposed to be together
Now I'm sitting here just thinking to myself
It would kill me, to see you with somebody else
To do the things you do
With a whole 'nother girl
Are you crazy boy
You mine and no-one else's
Hold me tight like no one else can
Competition non-existent
Oh, yeah yeah Sitting home alone
Looking at my phone like
I wish that you would call me
And tell me that you're sorry I'm Sitting home alone
Looking at my phone like
I wish that you would call me
And tell me that you're sorry
I just wanna be sad
I just wanna be sad bae
Aren't you ever ever sad have a minute
Ohh yeah, I just wanna be sad for a minute Lil Boat!
Baby, I been working so hard just to get your attention
Your ex-boy mad, yeah I can feel the tension
I guess if he really ain't talking direct then he didn't really mention
Nothing 'bout me and you and what we gonna do
How we run up a check on me for
We mention my beamers
We skrt in the lane
All you ex niggas is lame
Your girls telling you not to mess with me just 'cuz my name
Oh woah, they don't wanna see you wit boat
They mad 'cuz I iced out ya throat
Spent a few bands on your coat
Then you left me now I'm all alone, woah
Now I'm sad Sitting home alone

Looking at my phone like
-Looking at my phone-
I wish that you would call me
-I wish you'd just call-
And tell me that you're sorry... I'm Sitting home alone
Looking at my phone like
-Looking at my phone-
I wish that you would call me
-I wish that you would call me-
And tell me that you're sorry I just wanna be sad
I just wanna be sad bae
Aren't you ever ever sad a minute
-Why did you leave me-
I just wanna be sad for a minute
I just wanna be sad for a minute
I just wanna be sad for a minute
I just wanna be sad for a minute
