

Heaven

Amber Run

'cause all I see goes in black and white
In the darkness of the night
It always seems that I've been chasin' angels
For what seems the entire of my life And all beacause heaven is on fire
Oh don't you know
And may I, it's got a feaver
I can't let you go 'cause all I see goes in technicolour
And it's you that burns brightest of all
I turn away and look again, your face is Reflected in the sweat on the walls
Ooooooooooo... 'cause in my bones, in the water
In my skin, in every corner
And like a shape go, is gonna colour you in It's in my bones, in the water
In my skin, in every corner
And like a shape go, I'm gonna colour you in
So all I see is black and white
In the darkness of the night
Oh and I've been chasin' angels all my life And now that heaven is on fire
In the worlds technicolour
Oh I'll be chasin' angels all my life
