Breathing In a New Mentality

Underoath

I'm the desperate
And you're the Savior
I'm the desperate
And you're the SaviorThere's been something
Something else talkin' in my ear
Someone save me
When I speak, it begins to decay
I'm not about to bury myself
Oh God, my hands are shaking again
Calm down
Calm Down

Now I can't feel the floor and my vision Takes it's toll on me

Takes it's foll on me
I'm the desperate
And you're the Savior
I'm the desperate

And you're the SaviorOh God it's racing through my veins
I'm afraid there must be some kinda mistake
Oh I'm in over my head again
Reach in and grab a hold of me
I'm so scared that I've started to slip.

They say that I'll never change I'll prove 'em wrong Prove 'em wrongIt's over

It's over

I hear the calling but it's passing through
Clean me up show me how to live
I hear the calling but it's passing through
Clean me up show me how to liveTear me downLet me start again
