

A Little Bit Trouble

Brothers Osborne

Everything about you says I should probably get going
But everything about me says I wanna stay right here
Everybody's got some things, better off not knowing
And that's just the same for us
Might be a little dangerous
Heard somebody say, you're a little heartbreaker
And sooner or later, I'll wake up and you'll be gone
The way that you got me feeling right now
Is got me thinking 'bout how I don't care if they're wrong
You can break my heart all night long
I know you, you're a little bit trouble
I know you
Baby that's just fine
'Cause you're easy on my mind
Easy on my mind
Whoever said nothing good ever happens after midnight
Has probably never seen how the moonlight shines on you
Let's take a little chance in the romance dancing in the headlights
And let's lose track of time
With your skin on mine
I know you, you're a little bit trouble
I know you
Baby that's just fine
'Cause you're easy on my mind
The way that you got me feeling right now
Is got me thinking 'bout how I don't care if they're wrong
'Cause you can break my heart all night long
You know you, you're a little bit trouble
You know you
Baby that's just fine
But you're easy on my mind
You're easy on my mind
