

Shadowchild

Soilwork

I lick the surface of a freedom ride Under a hammering light... I scream! Let's roll the dice of the future, burning in my hand, I've built destruction upon the velvet skies

Maybe I'm strong, maybe I'm wrong(Chorus x3)

Lead us, Shadowchild - soiled by your faith in disguise Shadowside - reflecting the eyes I'm raising hell, a magic spell Pain and pleasure together as one, I will recall, I will recall When I'm down the stairs... I spit human cries, I can feel when they lie My sun being one with the... universe Hear my call

(Chorus)Creating my crown from the millions of lights I'm abused beyond recognition Pre-Millennium futuristic I predict you all to live Under an individual sun We're all collecting our senses and run...

(Chorus)

Lead us, Shadowchild - soiled by your faith in disguise, Shadowside - reflecting the eyes, Lead us, Shadowchild
- the truth's lying far from your life, Shadowside - reflecting the eyes...
