

Arise, Awake

Paul Banks

Arise, awake,
To open the sky is the aim.
Arise, awake,
To open the sky is the aim.
We promise sight fulfilling. Here comes the dolphin times,
I don't call them filthy. Arise, don't hate. Here comes the dolphin times,
I don't call them filthy.
When we changed our wine
Side offences will see.
Here we go, it's all happening.
Dream on, over hank
Lean on, it's all happening.
Simplify this by yourself. Here we go, it's all the same,
Oh, no, this is all happening.
Don't deny, screw yourself,
If only crazy, your rules have changed
And now every side can win.
Lose my page, but I rectify my will.
All I know it's I wanna be taken back,
Over and over.
Wait for days in your eyes, take me back
To the solemn big time. It's all I know, it's a part that you've taken back, over and over
Safe to say I am borrowing this from my past.
We know it's all happening.
