

Her

Raury

Little lady of mine
All she wants is to see the sky
She doesn't know she's in love
With a cloud that's way too high
I'm coming home, home to her
She eludes like bluest birds
She's haunting me, mocking me
Leading me nowhere at all I'll follow her
And I'll die for her When I am blue, she is too
It's the only shade we know
Our hearts the same, so we share
Everything from joy to pain
This summer day quickly changes
To Autumn and I fall all over her
Into her, I have no control at all
I'll follow her
And I'll die for her
Follow her
And I'll die for her
Follow her
And I'll die for her
Follow her
And I'll die for her
Follow her
And I'll die for her
