

The Hellions Genesis

Incantation

Spawned from the vortex of death
Your microcosm that flows
In frozen veins, mirrors Yet immortal, with pride and faith
Night skies and blackened domains
We advance as a legion unbound all fear and remorse are drowned Every warrior joins thier echelon By chant
By conjuration
By dagger
Create the scales of this celestial hydra Whispered dream speech that consumes
By chant
By conjuration
By dagger We're at one with the beast and we must feed
