

I'm a Stone

River Tiber

Everyone here
In front of me still
Watching the smoke
Lost in the air
The moment appears
Lines that we've drawn
See I'm tryna go
But I'm pretty gone I'm a stone, I'm a stone in the center of a flame
And it's so hard to be patient
When I'm the only one waiting
I left my heart in the basement
I left my pride on the way in
I want no part in your plan
I got my own, understand
I can hear people walking
I've got my ear to the ground
All the lines that you're saying
Playing a part that you stay in
Until it all turns to stone
And you're all burned out or you're fading
I'm tryna do this alone
I'm tryna do this alone
I got my circle around but
I'm tryna do this alone I'm a stone, I'm a stone in the center of a flame
I'm a stone
I'm a stone
I'm a stone
I'm a stone I'm a stone
I'm a stone
I'm a stone
I'm a stone
