

Mess With Time

Built to Spill

Come on
Whats to decide?
Reveal your life
Mostly with lies
Review
What you have done
I know it's gone
Back to its sun
Finally
Something to say
Back to their lies
Not to their face
Where to Go for your life
Back to your fire
But you don't try
Well, oh well, your mind
Still a mess with time
How can you unwind
When my hands are tied?
