

So Beautiful

Darren Hayes

Whether I'm right or wrong, there's no phrase that hits
Like an ocean needs the sand or a dirty old shoe that fits
And if all the world was perfect, I would only ever want to see your scars
You know they can have their universe, but we'll be in the dirt designing stars
And darling, you know...

You make me feel so beautiful
Nowhere else in the world I want to be
You make me feel so beautiful
Whether I'm up or down, there's no crowd to please
I'm like a faith without a clause to believe in it

And if all the world was smiling, I would only ever want to see your frown
You know they can sail away in sunsets, we'll be right here stranded on the ground
Just happy to be found...

You make me feel so beautiful
Nowhere else in the world I want to be
You make me feel so beautiful
I have lost my illusions, I have drowned in your words
I have left my confusion to a cynical world
I am throwing myself at things I don't understand
Discover enlightenment holding your hand
You are so beautiful...

Yeah, darling, you know!
That you make me feel so beautiful
Nowhere else in the world I want to be
Yeah, you make me feel so beautiful...
Darling, you know...
You make me feel so beautiful
Yeah, darling, you know!
That you make me feel so beautiful
(You are beautiful, you are beautiful...)
(You are, you are, you are, you are so beautiful...)
Yeah, darling, you know!
(You are beautiful, oh you are, you are so beautiful...)
