

Beautiful Pain

Andy Black

Your life was a shooting star
That burned out way to fast
And all the memories of The dream that is built to last
Don't wanna wait, wanna wait, wanna wait for my next panic attack, no
Don't wanna wait, wanna wait, wanna wait for my next crash.
It's a beautiful pain
It's a beautiful pain
When I remember the good times, when I remember the good.
It's a beautiful pain
It's a beautiful pain
When I let go of a heart ache, when I let go of your heart.
All the times that I keep holding on to
even though you're gone
And the nights that I keep holding back the tears.
I hope that you found what you're looking for.
I pray that your happy now
And never looking back
Rest with the angels now
Heavens gate you left.
Don't wanna wait, wanna wait, wanna wait cause you're never coming back, no.
Don't wanna wait, wanna wait, wanna wait for the last dance.
It's a beautiful pain
It's a beautiful pain
When I remember the good times, when I remember the good.
It's a beautiful pain
It's a beautiful pain
When I let go of a heart ache, when I let go of your heart.
All the times that I keep holding on to
even though you're gone
And the nights that I keep olding back the tears.
I hope that you found what you're looking for.
Don't say goodbye tonight
Don't say goodbye tonight
Don't say goodbye tonight and leave forever
Don't say goodbye tonight
Don't say goodbye tonight
Don't say goodbye tonight and leave forever
It's a beautiful pain
It's a beautiful pain
When I remember the good times, when I remember the good.
It's a beautiful pain
It's a beautiful pain
When I let go of a heart ache, when I let go of your heart.
All the times that I keep holding on to
even though you're gone
And the nights that I keep holding back the tears.
I hope that you found what you're looking for.
I hope that you found what you're looking for.
