

The Golden Elk

Amorphis

Do not doubt her wisdom
Don't resist her call
Just follow in her footsteps
For she will not wait She bears her treasure
Carries it before her footsteps
Be ever alert
For she will not wait The keeper of fleeting moment
She's the Golden Elk
The mother of time and tide
The shaper of destinies
The keeper of fleeting moment
She's the Golden Elk
The mother of time and tide
Do not hesitate then
Don't resist her call
Be ever alert
For she will not wait
The Queen of Time
Gives you the direction
Predicts your path
The one you must follow
The Queen of Time The keeper of fleeting moment
She's the Golden Elk
The mother of time and tide
The shaper of destinies
The keeper of fleeting moment
She's the Golden Elk
The mother of time and tide
The shaper of destinies
If you see her as a ghost
In Winter's blizzard
Sense her in the shy sunset of spring
Hear her as a rustle in summer's night
See through her autumn wood's disguise The keeper of fleeting moment
She's the Golden Elk
The mother of time and tide
The shaper of destinies
The keeper of fleeting moment
She's the Golden Elk
The mother of time and tide
The shaper of destinies If you thought you heard her voice
If you think you saw her shape

The Queen of Time
If the wind brought you her scent
If you tracked her on your trail
The Queen of Time
