

Why

Roy Woods

Buzz when you drive back
We'll get high, 4: 27 in the night
Show up when you wanna, babe
I hope you know it' alright, I don't mind
Shawty, show me your thighs, don't be shy, baby
Don't ride, I'll lotion you down
Or would you rather oil me, it's smoother when you ride
Fall in my arms girl wake up to me
Let's sleep with no clothes again
Am I talking through you as you're staring through me What's with all our lies again But this time I wanna know why, I can't sleep without you to my right
But this time I wanna know why, I can't sleep without you to my right
(Harmonizing)
Put me to sleep with your voice, babe
Don't leave me with the choice, babe
Oh please, I don't need no extra love off of you You can't run outta love
There is nothing that's too much
Can you take me real far? Take me the whole way, baby
Grab my hands, don't lose faith, I have so much in you
I know when to give you space
Cause I know, know, know that I mess up
Got you feeling like you're 'bout throw a left hook
I throw my hook into your sea while it's flooding my bed
They have done so much to me but can't throw off my head
I'm so sorry that you didn't see the love I have Oh well, guess we're better off
Only the thoughts confuse all the months
Know I was late showing up to prom, but I show you later
Surprise in a box
But this time I wanna know why, I can't sleep without you to my right
But this time I wanna know why, I can't sleep without you to my right Put me to sleep with your voice, babe
Don't leave me with the choice, babe
Oh please, I don't need no extra love off of you I'm sorry for so much, I'm sorry for so much
I'm sorry for so much, I'm sorry for so much
I'm sorry for so much, I'm sorry for so much
I'm sorry for so much, I'm sorry for so much (Harmonizing)
