

Hypermisophoniac

Jack White

Every sound I hear
Is louder than the last
Sounds like a dynamite blast
When you click your teeth
I need relief Each one, each one
Louder than the last and
Makes my fingers curl
Sounds like a dynamite blast Ain't no running
Ain't no running
When you're robbing a bank
When you're robbing a bank
Ain't no running
Ain't no running, ain't no running
When you're robbing a bank
When you're robbing a bank Ain't nowhere to run
When you're robbing a bank
When you're robbing a bank You ship your drink
And I start to think
That I'm the only one
That can hear all the sounds in the world Nowhere to run
When you're robbing a bank
When you're robbing a bank Ain't nowhere, ain't nowhere
Nowhere to run
When you're robbing a bank
When you're robbing a bank
Ain't nowhere, ain't nowhere
Nowhere to run
When you're robbing a bank
When you're robbing a bank Nowhere to run
When you're robbing a bank
