Meet Me On the Equinox

Death Cab for Cutie

Meet me on the Equinox Meet me half way When the sun is perched at it's highest peak In the middle of the dayLet me give my love to you Let me take your hand As we walk in the dimming light Or darling understandThat everything, everything ends That everything, everything endsMeet me on your best behavior Meet me at your worst For there will be no stone unturned Or bubble left to burst Let me lay beside you, Darling Let me be your man And let our bodies intertwine But always understandThat everything, everything ends That everything, everything ends That everything, everything, everything endsA window An opened tomb The sun crawls Across your bedroom A halo A waiting room Your last breaths Moving through you As everything, everything ends As everything, everything ends As everything, everything, everything Everything, everything endsMeet me on the Equinox Meet me half way When the sun is perched at it's highest peak In the middle of the day Let me give my love to you Let me take your hand As we walk in the dimming light Or darling understand That everything, everything ends Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941.
