

Throw Shade

CRUISR

When you meet your maker
Tell him I already know
This is an undertaker
Won't save your soul
And don't you get me started
I don't believe a word you say
She's saying she's an artist
I thought you were a hurricane
You're dead to me, rest in peace
You can't let me be
If you wanna throw shade
I'm gonna throw you away, no
If you wanna throw shade
Well honey I'll see you never
See you never throw shade
Unless I throw you away, no
If you wanna throw shade
Well honey I'll see you never
See you never
I'll see you never
I'll see you never, hey
I'll see you never
I know you're nothing but an enemy
You've been tripping on a brand new way
I got your fake identity
And if I go, if I go bad
Spend your money on a matai
And then you sipping on a French rose
I've been saving for a city wide
I'll give you awful way
You're dead to me, RIP, you can't let me be
If you wanna throw shade
I'm gonna throw you away, no
If you wanna throw shade
Well honey I'll see you never
See you never throw shade
Unless I throw you away, no
If you wanna throw shade
Well honey I'll see you never
I could read it
I mean I'm really gonna miss you though
I could read it
I mean it's all so sad to see you go
If you wanna throw shade
I'm gonna throw you away, no

If you wanna throw shade
Well honey I'll see you never
If you wanna throw shade
See you never
