

King of Yesterday

Jude

Can you still remember
How it seemed that
We could live forever in a lovers dream? And falling was the best part
But now, you know, the things you cling to
Your heart can start to grow You, you're walking away
I've been there now, I know what to say
I'm the king of yesterday A silly little love song for myself
It's all I ever do, you know, I shine the shell
A pretty little picture, the face of you
You were my setting sun and now you're every view You, you're walking away
I've been there now, I know what to say
I'm the king of yesterday
Why don't, why don't, why don't you stay?
Why don't you stay? Why don't you stay?
Why don't you stay? Take a little time, throw it on the line
Let me believe that you believe in me
Baby, turn around, look at what I found
You are the one that I want Take a little time, throw it on the line
Let me believe that you believe in me
Baby, turn around, look at what I found
You were the one that I wanted And someday, I'll be over on my own
Believing all the legends of the loves I've known And seeing you in summer
The way we were when you were seventeen
You know, I much preferred you walking away
I've been here, now I know what to say
I'm the king of Yesterday Why don't, why don't, why don't you stay?
Why don't you stay? Why don't you stay with me? Stay Take a little time, throw it on the line
Let me believe that you believe in me
Baby, turn around, look at what I found
You are the one that I want Take a little time, throw it on the line
Let me believe that you believe in me
Baby, turn around, look at what I found
You were the one that I wanted
You were the one that I wanted King of yesterday, king of yesterday

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>