

Same As Me (feat. Rachel Platten)

Diego Torres

People moving every day
You know they move so slow
Do they know why they are going?
Do they know why they go?
Look into the book of rules
And tell me what you see
Are you all that different?
Are you just the same as me?
Waiting for 1989
We don't want no more war
Love is slipping away
It slips away so fast
I always thought that it would
Last and it would last
Look into your book of rules
And tell me what you see
Am I all that different?
Are you just the same as me?
Waiting for 1989
We don't want no more war
Waiting for 1989
Burruchaga es un pescado
And shut that door
