Player (feat. Chris Brown)

Tinashe

Live life like If I want, I do

If I want love, I get it (get it, I get it)

Fooled me twice

If I fall for you

If I go there, forget itSo you better stay up, player

Yeah, you better keep up, player

Cause tonight is a game-changer

So you better stay up, player

Playing with fire

If I burn, you do

If I hurt, you won't let it (you won't let it)

Stacked my deck like I ain't gon' lose

Like a victim, forget itSo you better stay up, player

Yeah, you better keep up, player

Cause tonight is a game-changer

So you better stay up, up, playerYou and I make so much love

Why you got me all fucked up?

Yeah, you got me holdin' back, holdin' back

But it ain't enough

You and I make so much love

Why you got me all fucked up?

Yeah, you got me holdin' back, holdin' back

Cause it ain't enough

All right

Baby girl, I don't want them other bitches

You be talking that shit, calling me a player (yeah)

Ain't no competition; fuck the opposition

I'm the man of my city, just like the mayor

I met her in the hotel lobby

Then we started loving in the elevator

You know I had to eat that

Tongue on her body; see you later, alligatorHurrying to her bed, smacking her on her ass

She a stone-cold killer, 45 in the back

Mama told her never mess with a nigga like me

I took her to Fruit Town to meet my OG

I took her to the west side, like "what's up?"

We was on the east side; we fucked

Now we sitting courtside; P-dub

Put me in the bed, you ain't gotta worry 'bout itYeah, you better stay up, player

Yeah, you better keep up, player

Cause tonight is a game-changer

So you better stay up, up, player (up)You and I make so much love Why you got me all fucked up?

Yeah, you got me holdin' back, holdin' back

But it ain't enough

You and I make so much love

Why you got me all fucked up?

Yeah, you got me holdin' back, holdin' back

Cause it ain't enoughYou and I make so much love (I been wanna give up, nah)

Why you got me all fucked up?

(But you're making it rough, nah)

Yeah, you got me holdin' back, holdin' back (You got me)

But it ain't enough (Holdin' back, holdin' back, back)

You and I make so much love (I been wanna give up, nah)

Why you got me all fucked up?

(But you're making it rough, nah)

Yeah, you got me holdin' back, holdin' back

Cause it ain't enough(Ain't enough) Player

(Ain't enough)
