

Give Me a Little (feat. Kait Weston)

Syence

I'm tired of looking back at wasted time
My heart has earned some cracks but I'm fine
Everytime I close my eyes
I still believe in you and I
But have I grown old enough to know
just how this ends
I just want to know how it feels when my heart and my head love like one
I wanna love like they do when the story book ending is done
Could you give me a little give me a little
give me a little
of that kind of love
Could you give me a little
give me a little
give me a little
of that kind of love
Give me a little of that kind of love I'm standing on my feet but shaking my knees These cuts don't go as deep but I still bleed
Everytime I close my eyes
I still believe in you and I
But have I grown old enough to know
just how this ends
I just want to know how it feels
when my heart and my head love like one
I wanna love like they do when the story book ending is done
Could you give me a little
give me a little
give me a little
of that kind of love
Could you give me a little
give me a little
give me a little
of that kind of love
I could count all the ways that you'd catch me before I would fall Well I guess there's something to fairytales after all
Could you give me a little
give me a little
give me a little
of that kind of love
Could you give me a little
give me a little
give me a little

of that kind of love

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>