

No Vacancy

OneRepublic

I used to leave the doors unlocked and leave the lights on
I used to stay awake, just counting hours on my thumb
I had so many empty rooms inside the chateau, yeah, oh-yeah I'm done with sharing space with people that I don't know
Trading pieces of my heart, it left a shadow
I had so many empty rooms inside the chateau, oh But ever since I met you No vacancy because of you
There's no vacancy, no empty rooms
Got no vacancy ever since I met you
No vacancy 'cause of you Used to be that I felt so damn empty
Ever since I met you, no vacancy
Used to be that I felt so damn empty
Ever since I met you, no vacancy
No vacancy, no vacancy Used to be that I felt so damn empty
Ever since I met you, no vacancy
Used to be that I felt so damn empty
Ever since I met you, no vacancy No vacancy, no vacancy I used to be the type to never take the chance, oh
Had so many walls, you'd think I was a castle
I spent so many empty nights with faces I don't know But ever since I met you No vacancy because of you
There's no vacancy, no empty rooms
Got no vacancy ever since I met you
No vacancy 'cause of you Used to be that I felt so damn empty
Ever since I met you, no vacancy
Used to be that I felt so damn empty
Ever since I met you, no vacancy
No vacancy, no vacancy Come on, come on, listen, oh-yeah
Come on, come on, listen, oh-yeah
When I fell, I fell, I fell, I fell for you
So no vacancy, no vacancy Used to be that I felt so damn empty
Ever since I met you, no vacancy
Used to be that I felt so damn empty
Ever since I met you, no vacancy No vacancy, no vacancy Come on, come on, listen
No vacancy, oh-yeah
Oh-yeah, no vacancy
