

Make Ya Feel Beautiful

Ruben Studdard

First off let me start by saying
I ain't trying to get in your jeans
First I'd rather learn your ups and downs
And everything in between I wanna know you, your insecurities
Secrets and your needs
I want your mental and your physical too
And once I've got it I won't stop
Until you know you're beautiful I just wanna make ya feel beautiful
Wanna make ya feel beautiful, girl, that's all I wanna do
Girl, just let me make ya feel beautiful
Let me make ya feel beautiful 'cause you are beautiful
I just wanna make ya feel beautiful
Wanna make ya feel beautiful, girl, that's all I wanna do
Girl, just let me make ya feel beautiful
Let me make ya feel beautiful 'cause you are beautiful Beautiful as Sunday in the Spring
Saturday in the Fall
Beautiful as poetry oh, when you look at me
Saying nothing at all I want you to know this Girl, I want you to see that it's real
I want you to feel that you're my focus
And girl that's what you'll be
Until I make you see that you are beautiful I just wanna make ya feel beautiful
Wanna make ya feel beautiful, girl, that's all I wanna do
Girl, just let me make ya feel beautiful
Let me make ya feel beautiful 'cause you are beautiful
I just wanna make ya feel beautiful
Wanna make ya feel beautiful, girl, that's all I wanna do
Girl, just let me make ya feel beautiful
Let me make ya feel beautiful 'cause you are beautiful There's so much for ya, girl, I know that you're beautiful
Right from your head to your toe you are so beautiful
There's so much for ya, girl, I know that you're beautiful
Baby from your head to your toe you are so beautiful I just wanna make ya feel beautiful
Wanna make ya feel beautiful, girl, that's all I wanna do
Girl, just let me make ya feel beautiful
Let me make ya feel beautiful 'cause you are beautiful I just wanna make ya feel beautiful
Wanna make ya feel beautiful, girl, that's all I wanna do
Girl, just let me make ya feel beautiful
Let me make ya feel beautiful 'cause you are beautiful
