

Milk

Jimmie's Chicken Shack

Milk them chickens and pluck them cows We're the ones that gonna fk you now Wandering with no purpose Things we do well I dont know We'll go all the way down to mexico Join up with the circus And no prophet today words could sound so sweet like the beat of souls in the drums of feet no fear I will rise today who do we think we are who do we think we are
Well its time that we will give her back what she gave I'm not talking to myself I'm just the only one who's listening Mind doesn't matter Think of all that we can do if we could just join together
One of these days
we're going to break through Wise never looked so strange Life is something that will soon fade away
And if anything is right today it's that we're hypnotized man
yeah who do we think we are
And no prophet's words would ever sound as sweet as the beat of souls in drums of our feet
No fear we will rise today But it's politics And I'm not politician Yeah its just politics, polytricks, polydicks, politics and I'm no politician

Yeah but i've got the attitude Attitude it ain't nothing but a bunch of head fattitude talking 'bout my attitude attitude It ain't nothing but a bunch of head fat who do i think i am yeah who do you think you are and who do we think you are and who do you think we are chicken And what's left to save
I'm just the only one who's listening mind over matter think of all that we could do
it's that we're hypnotized man who do we think we are (x4)
