

Wait (feat. Loote)

Martin Jensen

When times are hard, feels out of place
Our fading love takes us back to yesterday
The bed is cold, from our mistakes
Seat's so empty though we never liked the space
Woke up home half drunk
Got a feeling we ain't done
'Cause anywhere you run
No ones gonna know you better
'Cause I was your first one
Back when we're so young
You go out with your friend
I know we'll still wake up together
Yeah, I'll stay, I'll
Hold you, everyday, everyday, I'll
Wait, I'll stay
I'll told you, in every day, everyday
I'll wait
Everyday I'll wait
Everyday I'll wait
Everyday I'll wait
Everyday I'll wait
Everyday, everyday I'll wait
We trapped inside, these paper walls
Side by side stick together when we're apart
All these years, the high and lows
All we know is us now we can't let it go
Woke up home half drunk
Got a feeling we ain't done
'Cause anywhere you run
No ones gonna know you better
'Cause I was your first one
Back when we're so young
You go out with your friend
I know we'll still wake up together
Yeah, I'll stay, I'll
Hold you, everyday, everyday, I'll
Wait, I'll stay
I'll told you, in every day, everyday
Everyday I'll wait
Everyday, everyday I'll wait
Everyday, everyday I'll wait
Everyday I'll wait
Everyday, everyday I'll wait
Everyday I'll wait
Everyday, everyday I'll wait
