

The Reason Why

Little Big Town

I could love you
Baby, if you want me to
I could go and fall for you
And never even try, hey, hey I could let you in Baby, where nobody's been Yeah, I'm ready and willing
To give this love a try, hey, hey You're the reason why
(Baby, you're the only reason why)
Don't wanna say goodnight
(Keep kissing me, don't wanna say goodnight) Yeah, it feels so right
(Everything is gonna be alright)
You're the reason why, hey, hey
You're the reason why, hey, hey
You're in my head
Like a song I can't forget
Wanna hear it over again
And again, hey, hey You're the reason why
(Baby, you're the only reason why)
Don't wanna say goodnight
(Keep kissing me, don't wanna say goodnight) Yeah, it feels so right
(Everything is gonna be alright)
You're the reason why, hey, hey I could love you
Baby, if you want me to
I could go and fall for you
And never even try And never even try
No and never even try
No and never even try
You're the reason why
(Baby, you're the only reason why)
Don't wanna say goodnight
(Keep kissing me, don't wanna say goodnight) Yeah, it feels so right
(Everything is gonna be alright)
You're the reason why, hey, hey You're the reason why
(Baby, you're the only reason why)
Don't wanna say goodnight
(Keep kissing me, don't wanna say goodnight) Yeah, it feels so right
(Everything is gonna be alright)
You're the reason why, hey, hey
You're the reason why, hey, hey
You're the reason why, hey, hey
You're the reason why, hey, hey Come on and take my hand
I'm ready and willing

Over and over again
